YOUR SECURITY
OUR PRIORITY

Chartrand Fortin Labelle solutions Inc. (CFL) is a consulting firm specialized in public and corporate security. CFL was created by a select group of experienced experts in the security field, who decided to combine their skills to offer a wide range of security-related services. In view of establishing a long-lasting relationship with the clients, the firm stresses excellence in the provision of services and absolute confidentiality.

CFL partners have many years of combined experience in the field of corporate and public security. They are also proficient in administrative inspections and internal audits.

Our mission is to provide our clients with first-rate corporate security services through direct or indirect intervention, to help them conduct their business activities successfully and achieve their objectives with confidence.

CODE OF ETHICS

Given the strategic nature of its work, CFL has adopted a code of ethics based on the most stringent standards in its field. The CFL code of ethics requires :

- The application of stringent standards as well as principles of quality and excellence in the conduct of our professional activities
- Absolute respect for current laws, the institutions that prescribe them, and those who enforce them
- A professional approach based on fairness and impartiality, in compliance with the ethical standards adopted
- The completion of mandates with accuracy, honesty and loyalty
- The respect and protection of confidential and privileged information that is entrusted to us or that we uncover
- The ongoing promotion of programs and systems likely to enhance existing quality standards

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

RISK MANAGEMENT

Our consultants can assess the risks and threats facing companies today. Our approach allows our clients to define acceptable risks and establish appropriate measures to minimize the consequences for their operations.

CRISIS MANAGEMENT

Managers must be capable of facing crisis situations that may arise within their organization. Our consultants possess extensive experience in the strategic and operational management of such events. They can also develop efficient crisis management plans and accompany clients during crisis situations.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION AND DUE DILIGENCE

Business decisions require accurate, relevant, and timely information. Our business information and intelligence specialists can help clients make informed decisions about acquisitions, investment project and the hiring of key personnel.

PHYSICAL SECURITY AND EXECUTIVE PROTECTION

Managers are vulnerable to certain risks. Threats, vicious attacks on reputations, and arrests for impaired driving are some of the situations that could affect the credibility of a manager. Our consultants in executive protection can recommend efficient measures to reduce the likelihood of such events and minimize their consequences.

LOSS PREVENTION

Loss prevention requires skills that encompass analysis, communication, training and control. Our consultants can evaluate preventive measures in place, conduct investigations and surveillance, and suggest modifications or new, more efficient and appropriate measures.

TRAINING

To successfully protect human resources and assets, employee and management must be firmly committed to the procedures and measures in place. For this reason, proper training is vital. Our consultants can develop and deliver top-quality training programs in emergency measures, crisis management, and corporate security, to name a few.
